The following members were present: Margaret West-Sumpter, Kenya Cannon, Andrea Fripp, DeAnna Bookert, Kimberly Lewis,

Non-Members present: Victoria Dixon-Mokeba, Attorney Shuler

Purpose of Meeting

Purpose of meeting is to address the concern in reference to a letter from Samuel Mokeba dated 3/12/10 regarding outside employment by V. Dixon-Mokeba.

Attorney Shuler advised board about providing a letter to V. Dixon-Mokeba from the ethics commission.

V. Dixon-Mokeba asked that it be reflected in the minutes that the previous board approved the supervision of the student teachers and teaching of the onsite class being co-taught with Dr. Gloria Boute. V. Dixon-Mokeba further stated that this has been an ongoing practice at the school since its inception. V. Dixon-Mokeba provided written statements from former board members and the school's financial adviser Bill Moser as evidence of this approval.

Motion was made by Andrea Fripp that Lead teacher V. Dixon-Mokeba will follow legal procedures that the ethic commission provides once research is completed by Attorney Shuler.

Motion was made second by K. Cannon.

Motion was made at 6:52pm that we go into executive session.

Motion was made to come out of executive session and second by K. Lewis. All voted and agreed.

Chair person advised no motion or votes were taken in executive session.

Floor was open for any other questions or concerns. No one had anything to address.

A motion to adjourn the board meeting was made by K. Lewis and seconded by A. Fripp at 8:01pm.
